

Colin Ewing Repeats as the 2020 Match Play Tournament Champion

If a one or two-day tournament is a sprint, the Match Play Tournament is a marathon. One has to be “on form” to survive and prevail over five straight days of one-on-one competition. For the second time in the last three years, Colin Ewing emerged victorious, defeating Craig Yoder in the final match 3 & 2. Colin is the first repeat winner in the eight-year history of the tournament.

Colin cut his swath through the field of 32 golfers with two close calls (1-Up) in Rounds 1 and 2 and three one-sided matches (5 & 3, 6 & 5, and 3 & 2) in Rounds 3, 4 and 5.

In the consolation match, Darrell Cox defeated Brian Murphy 2 & 1 to finish in third and fourth place respectively.

Special thanks to Colin for organizing and running the tournament.

The next TRMGA tournament is the two-day Club Championship on March 11 and 13.
